

Vearse Farm project moves forward

CONTROVERSIAL proposals for a major new housing development on the edge of Bridport have moved a step closer to reality,

by Jack Dixon

jack@pemedial.co.uk

after a senior government official rubber-stamped blueprint plans for the future of West Dorset.

An independent inspector has now given the district council's Local Plan document the seal of approval – a move that potentially clears the way for almost 800 new homes to be built at Vearse Farm.

Paul Crysell, the government inspector tasked with examining the council's future development strategy, described Vearse Farm as a "crucial element" in the plan.

Subject to final approval this autumn, the Local Plan will include the land as a potential development site, with Hallam Land Management poised to submit an application for planning permission.

Initial sketches have outlined plans for a total of 760 houses to be built on around 70 hectares of land currently designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty.

Indications are that the Vearse Farm development will include a mix of residential properties, as well as a school and substantial space for business units.

Despite objections from local campaigners, Mr Crysell found the district council's Local Plan to be sound and supported its proposals to make the land at Vearse Farm available for development.

Neither did he object to allowing some new homes to be built on the St Michael's Trading Estate as part of a long-term regeneration scheme.

Commenting on the viability of development at Vearse Farm, Mr Crysell said: "It is clear to me that the councils are well aware of the importance of protecting designated landscape but face the difficult TASMIN Chandler, from Bridport, describes herself as a 'Jill of all trades', having worked in music, festivals and events, journalism, parks management, fashion and start-up businesses.

She has also lived in lots of places, including London, Melbourne, Sydney, Perth, Los Angeles and New York, but is now happily settled and working to create an exemplary local food system for small producers and the community.

● TELL us about your love of locally sourced food...

There are many reasons – personal, cultural, physical, economical and, simply, because it tastes best. Having spent a lot of time in Australia and coastal California, I've always loved having access to and eating fresh, healthy food and food politics and nutrition are life-long interests. Bridport has all the elements required for an ideal food system – i.e. top quality, local growers, producers and farmers plus community and business support for them. It's inspired me since I first moved here. We already know how lucky we are and I'd like to make our food system even better.

● WHAT about the report you produced for Communities Living Sustainably (CLS)?

The report resulted from a series of face-to-face interviews with Bridport catering businesses about their food sourcing habits; also seasonality, waste management and environmental impact. The process provided many valuable insights into Bridport's local food system – particularly how and where it can be improved.

● IN the report you talk about working with supermarkets?

When I see a problem or a lack, I automatically start searching for ways to solve the problem or fill the gap. It's the way my brain and character work. One of the biggest obstacles to achieving a thriving, local food system and supporting our growers and farmers is our reliance upon supermarkets. They're cheap and convenient so people become dependent upon them. Public awareness of the negatives of supermarkets is increasing and I'd like to work together with – rather than against – supermarkets to come up with proactive ways they can support the community around them. I also want to work to create local alternatives, which can compete both cost-wise and convenience-wise. I like win/win scenarios.

● AS Bridport Food Festival co-ordinator what does your role entail?

The role is varied and enjoyable. Along with some administrative work, it involves pulling together our best local producers (we work on a 15 mile radius, unless we find a gap) and showcasing the wonderful range and quality of food we produce. We had a brilliant festival this year and I'm already excited for 2016. This year I wanted to focus a little more on health and education, so ensured more fresh and vegetarian food was available and introduced the GYO Patch to show people how simple it is to grow their own fruit, salad and veg. This emphasis will be expanded upon next year. Also, I wanted to involve more of the younger, up-and-coming producers and vendors doing brilliant, innovative things with food.

● WHY do you think that Bridport sources so much produce locally?

Because we have the best quality food produced locally! Truly, we're spoiled. From fruit and veg to ethically-reared meats to cheeses to preserves to baked goods – it's all here. Businesses also have personal, often long-standing relationships with their suppliers and the benefits of this are myriad. Provenance and quality are assured. There is an impressive level of awareness and support for our local producers from Bridport's businesses and the community.

● CLS are producing a food map for Bridport, could you tell us a bit about that?

The Local Food Map provides an effective way to highlight the businesses in Bridport sourcing locally, responsibly and sustainably. CLS's primary focus is sustainability and food plays an enormous role, we all have to eat. If people change their shopping and eating habits, the benefits ripple outward – locally in the community and, more broadly, reducing any negative impact on the environment as a whole. The map will guide people who are conscious of these issues where to eat and shop in town, including a local food shopping list, information about community food projects and some pointers about how we can improve our habits. An updated, more complete version will be produced in spring 2016.

● DO you think the people of Bridport and the surrounding areas know just how sustainable the food in Bridport is?

Many do, many don't. I know people here love great food and it's much easier to appreciate where your food comes from when surrounded by farms and orchards. Bridport is quite exceptional in both its bounty of fresh produce and its community's awareness. Something I'd like to avoid is preaching to the converted. Ideally, more attention would be given to those whose access to and awareness of the importance of local food and the health benefits of cooking from scratch, for example, is limited by lack of education, money, cultural habits and other factors.

● AT your ultimate dinner party, what would you serve?

The food would be Italian in style prepared by an excellent cook using local ingredients. There would be chewy bread, Pugliese olives and Capreolus charcuterie to start, with finest extra virgin olive oil and aged balsamic. Salad from Trill Farm (ideally with saffron seeds). Meat would be goat or venison, fish would be monkfish or seabass. Lovely, fresh local veg and lots of tomato and basil. Desserts would be tiramisu, gelato, lemon tart and something rich, dark and chocolatey. And to complete my ultimate dinner... the perfect coffee. Always.

A-level celebrations

STUDENTS the Sir John Colfox Academy and Beaminster School are celebrating after receiving some of the joint sixth form's best ever A-level results.

High-flying students achieved another set of excellent A-level results this year, with over a quarter of all grades in the top A* to A bracket.

Half were at A* to B and over

by Lottie Welch

lottie@pemedial.co.uk

99 per cent of all results were secured at A* to E grades – all above the national average. The Sir John Colfox Academy had a 100 per cent pass rate.

Students arrived at the two schools last Thursday (August 13th) to pick up their brown envelopes and find out how they had done and which universities they would be going to in September.

Kay Taylor, headteacher at the Sir John Colfox Academy, said: "It is the best A* to A results we have ever had at almost a third of results gained – it's fantastic."

"I am really delighted with these results, which are some of the best we have had and which will compare very favourably with other schools nationally.

"The students and teachers have worked hard and really deserve this success."

"Our focus across the sixth form on individual support really does pay off."

Some of the students that received top marks included Grace Crabbtree and Oliver Woodcock, who both received three A*s.

Billy Jones didn't achieve the grades he wanted at AS level but turned things around this year to secure an A* in biology, an A in chemistry and a B in history at A2.

Elsewhere, Lottie Wilmore will be embarking on an Art Foundation course at Bournemouth University after achieving an A* in art, a C in English literature and a B in media.

Other outstanding individual performances included: Poppy Smith, who achieved an A in philosophy and ethics, an A in English language and a B in psychology; Amy Van Zyl, with A*, A, A, B; Jack Hansford and Callum Pattinson, who both received A*, A, A; and Anja Jackson and Joe Pitfield, who both achieved three As.

Keith Hales, headteacher at Beaminster School, said: "At a time of great change in education it is essential that schools continue to provide the stability and direction that students require."

"The number of high grades will ensure that students are able to progress onto their chosen careers."

"They have been a great bunch of students and richly deserve these results after two years of hard study."

AS results were equally impressive with students Robyn Edwards, Rhiannon Emm, Jonathan Greenwood, Lottie Hyde, Holly Marriage and Asha Ponsford-Maguire all gaining four A grades and Vilho Barnard achieving three As, a B and a C.

Billy Jones achieved an A*, A and B in his A-levels problem of balancing such concerns with the need to provide homes and jobs to meet future needs.

"In order to achieve this and adhere to sustainable development principles it is inevitable that some areas in the AONB will be affected."

He added: "On balance ... I consider there are exceptional circumstances to justify the identification of Vearse Farm in the Local Plan.

"The scale of the proposed development affords opportunities to address some of the wider traffic issues including improvements to the Miles Cross junction while introducing new facilities of benefit to the town."

Pressure group AD-VEARSE, which campaigned for the site to be removed from the Local Plan during examination hearings last year, expressed "deep disappointment" at the inspector's judgment and called for West Dorset District Council not to adopt the plan.

A spokesman said: "This decision has nothing to do with the needs of Bridport and everything to do with meeting a fictional national housing target."

"We have warned that the development will create severe problems with traffic and parking in the town, and increase the threat of flooding."

"The inspector has acknowledged these concerns but then states that exceptional circumstances justify building in this area of outstanding natural beauty. What he has failed to do is explain what these exceptional circumstances are."

The plan sets out a long-term planning strategy for West Dorset up until 2031, including detailed policies and site proposals for housing, employment, leisure and infrastructure.

It was submitted to the government for examination in June 2013, following several stages of public consultation.

But campaigners say a more localised neighbourhood plan for the Bridport area should be in place before any decisions are made about Vearse Farm.

The ADVEARSE spokesman added: "We strongly believe that local people should have the lead role in deciding how much development should take place, and where and when it should be built."

"The government has talked up the concept of localism but this decision is simply a victory for the developers and nothing to do with the needs and wishes of local people."

Councillor Ian Gardner, West Dorset District Council's executive portfolio holder for planning, said: "The inspector's report is a major step forward towards adoption of our new Local Plan."

"Its adoption should provide everyone with a better understanding of where the new development, providing the homes and jobs our area need, is planned."

The plan will now go to the district council's executive committee in October, where it is expected to be adopted. A formal planning application for Vearse Farm is also anticipated.

Broadband project now two-thirds complete

THE organisation behind a multi-million-pound rollout of high-speed broadband across Dorset has announced that two-thirds of the ambitious project is now complete.

Superfast Dorset, the partnership between central government, Dorset County Council and telecommunications provider BT, says more than 55,000 households and businesses are now able to connect to the service.

By the end of 2017, the technology will be available to a total of 90,000 properties.

Large swathes of the Bridport area are now up to speed, with access to the superfast service.

Several of the surrounding communities, including Beaminster, are due to be connected this year.

Askerswell is one of the few communities within the Bridport area where there are currently "no plans for fibre broadband".

Digital Economy Minister Ed Vaizey paid tribute to the Superfast Dorset programme.

"We are transforming the digital landscape of the UK and our nationwide rollout of su-

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedi.co.uk

perfast broadband has now reached an additional three million UK homes and businesses," he said.

"I congratulate Superfast Dorset on having reached more than 55,000 properties in Dorset so far — they're making incredible progress."

If there is higher than expected take up of the technology by local households and businesses, then BT will make more funding available to allow Superfast Dorset to roll-out fibre broadband even further.

Councillor Robert Gould, Leader of Dorset County Council, said: "Seeing Superfast Dorset reach this important milestone gives me great confidence in the programme, and we need to drive take up to make sure people benefit.

"The aim of this project is to drive economic growth and when we see businesses switching to fibre we know that they will make efficiencies and improvements that will boost their bottom line."

Paul Coles, BT regional manager for the South West, added: "Today marks important milestones, both locally and nationally, for the superfast broadband revolution.

"This exciting technology is transforming the opportunities for communities across Dorset and the UK as a whole.

"BT's multi billion pound investment in superfast broadband through its involvement in partnerships, such as Superfast Dorset, and its own commercial programme has already made fibre broadband available to more than 310,000 households and businesses in Dorset — and the number is continuing to grow rapidly.

"Our engineers are rolling out the technology at a world class pace, reaching thousands more premises across the region every week.

"Successful broadband partnerships are creating a lasting legacy, which will play a key role in the future prosperity of communities for many years to come."

Tributes paid to crash victim

THE family of the man who tragically died in a collision in Bridport have paid tribute to a "kind and considerate" man.

Gerald Francis Quinn, a 75-year-old from Torquay, has been named as the driver of the orange Daewoo Matiz that was involved in a collision with a white lorry earlier this month.

Mr Quinn died at the scene and his family have released the following statement: "Gerald was a kind and considerate man who devoted 30 years of his life as a secondary school French teacher in Torbay.

"He was a committed Catholic who lost his wife to cancer in 1988, and his daughter tragically in France in 1999.

"He will be much missed by his remaining two children, three grandchildren and wider family and friends."

The fatal crash happened at around 5am on Tuesday, August 4th on Sea Road South.

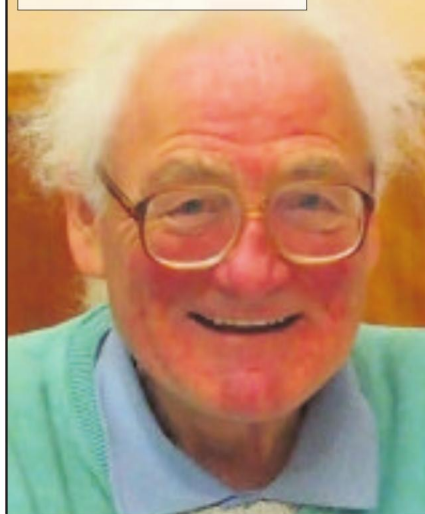

The lorry was travelling towards The Crown roundabout and the driver, a 46-year-old man from Derbyshire, was uninjured but treated for shock.

The road was closed throughout the morning and reopened during the afternoon.

Police Sergeant Dave Stroud, of Dorset Police's traffic unit, said the car was heading in the opposite direction to the lorry when they collided, and is appealing for witnesses or anyone with information to come forward and call Dorset Police on 101 quoting incident number 4:44.

Alternatively call the free anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111 where mobile phone tariffs may apply.

Burial site goes back to Bronze Age

ARCHAEOLOGISTS investigating an ancient burial site discovered near Bridport have dated the remains back to the Bronze Age.

Experts stumbled upon the site two years ago and have been working to establish its significance.

The remains of three people aged between 18 and 25 were uncovered at the site, in Long Bredy, in July 2013.

And after hours of painstaking analysis, archaeologists have now determined that the bodies can be dated back to between 800 and 600 BC.

Martin Papworth, an archaeologist working with the National Trust to examine the site, said no other burial from this period had ever been discovered in Dorset.

"It's a very significant find from a period with little evidence for the disposal of the dead," he said.

"It's an important window into the past – the first clues of the people who lived in Dorset at that time."

Archaeological sites in West Dorset are often buried so deeply that they are rarely unearthed – unless by accident.

Fortunately, National Trust experts who were following routine drainage and sewage works at Golly Knapp – a 17th century cottage in the village – were able to step in and call a halt to the digging when the site was inadvertently discovered.

The ancient grave, which turned out to contain the remains of three people found in a crouched position, was then carefully excavated with several bones removed for detailed analysis.

Archaeologists working on the site have now been able to trace the remains back through the centuries using radiocarbon dating, placing the bodies somewhere between the Bronze and Iron ages.

Mr Papworth added: "The archaeology of this field is now significant, although before the trench was put in there was nothing to show us that it had any archaeology at all.

"We removed some bone fragments for testing but the remainder of the three bodies we saw have remained in situ.

"The remains are of three teenagers or young adults – all from around the period when the first iron was being used in this country. No other burials in Dorset have been identified from this time.

"In the landscape there are few monuments from 2,800 years ago. It's long after the round burial mounds but before the great Dorset hillforts were being constructed.

"Somewhere buried nearby there should be evidence for the enclosed settlement of round houses where the young people once lived."

Bridport comes alive for carnival night

BRIDPORT town centre was once again awash with colour and music as local organisations and groups came together to walk, dance, pull and run through the town for the annual carnival.

Skeletons, Pac Man, the cast of Dick Whittington and the Ghostbusters made their way through the streets, cheered on by crowds, with the addition of a First double decker bus, which got caught up in the procession.

Led by the Wessex Military Band, Bridport Carnival Queen tableau and Bridport Mayor Councillor Sandra Brown with town crier John Collingwood, the procession appeared smaller than last year but this did not detract from the quality of entries.

One very good good entry was Bridport Round Table's Ghostbusters float, which had been made from an old Volvo, with music and smoke coming from inside and members dressed as spirit exterminators and ghosts.

But Bridport Pantomime Players who claimed first prize for their walking entry of Dick Whittington with members dressed as characters.

The entertainment carried on into the night and again on Sunday evening when thousands of people gathered in Bucky Doo Square for the annual torchlight procession to West Bay.

The streets came alive with blazing torches as the crowd made their way down South Street to East Beach car park in West Bay where visitors enjoyed a bonfire, live music and a firework display.

MEMBERS of Bridport Community Allotments encouraged the local community to grow their own at an open afternoon last week for National Allotment Week

MEMBERS of Bridport Community Allotment invited the public to find out more and pick their brains in order to encourage them to grow their own, writes LOTTIE WELCH.

The group offered an insight into what they do and shared information along with home grown produce and tea.

The annual community allotment event - as part of National Allotment Week from 10th to 16th August - was an opportunity for the group to showcase the allotments and to encourage more people to grow their own fruit and vegetables.

Jenn Baker, leader of the community allotment, said: "It is national allotment week and this is the third year of doing an open afternoon at the allotment."

"The public are able to come and see what we do and grow and a lot of us made produce from what we have grown here."

"It is to encourage people to start to grow their own and if they don't want to do it by themselves, there are people here that can help them and start them off."

"Here we are surrounded by flats and not many people have gardens, so they can come here and start off."

The National Allotment Week theme this year - a plot for all ages - was designed to emphasise the benefits that allotments bring to everyone regardless of age or gender.

Big boost for Home Start charity

A WEST Dorset charity set up to support hardworking parents has received a significant funding boost.

A grant of more than £7,000 awarded to Home Start West Dorset will cover the cost of training several new volunteers to help develop the scheme.

The charity, which provides advice and practical support to hundreds of families in the area, will use the cash to fund two training courses designed to prepare volunteers for home visiting.

A total of £7,408 was awarded from the Dorset County Council

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedial.co.uk

Fund - a pot of cash managed by the Dorset Community Foundation.

David Powell, chair of trustees for Home Start West Dorset, said: "We are absolutely delighted with obtaining the grant from the Dorset County Council Fund."

"This will enable us to train more home-visiting volunteers and thus expand the charity, and support the continually growing demand for family support in the local community."

More than 20 new volunteers are set to receive the training, enabling them to help struggling parents.

The cash will cover the cost of the 40-hour training course, before volunteers are matched with local families for home support of between two and four hours a week.

For more information about the initiative, contact Home Start West Dorset on 01305 265072 or email office@homestartwestdorset.co.uk

Retirement flats refused permission

PLANS to build a block of retirement flats in Bridport town centre have been turned down by West Dorset District Council, writes LOTTIE WELCH.

Planning officers refused permission for the application, which was submitted by Churchill Retirement Living earlier this year.

The developer had sought to turn Bridport's former magistrates' court on Rax Lane - which is inside the Bridport conservation area - into 26 retirement flats, comprising 18 one-bed and eight two-bed properties.

But the application received 18 letters of objection from local residents and campaigners, with many arguing the need for affordable housing for young people and families in the town.

The application was refused last week on the grounds of height and its impact on surrounding buildings. Planners also highlighted poor living conditions for future residents, loss of trees and loss of privacy to nearby homes.

The decision notice published by West Dorset District Council said: "The large building has insufficient regard to the style and quality of the surrounding heritage assets and adversely affects the visual amenities of the town scape."

"The development by reason of its height and proposed fenestration on the northern elevation would result in a loss of privacy to the occupiers of 5 Garden Close and The Garden House."

"The development by reason of the poor design and internal layout results in poor living conditions for future occupiers with insufficient daylight in living rooms."

"With regards to the proposed affordable housing element, there is currently no mechanism in place through a suitably worded legal agreement to secure the provision of the financial contribution for off-site affordable housing."

Radiotherapy closer by 2017 : Churches celebrate 150th anniversaries

CANCER patients in Bridport will be able to access specialist radiotherapy treatment at Dorset County Hospital by the end of 2017, health bosses have announced.

A £7 million radiotherapy centre will be built at the hospital in Dorchester, bringing key facilities much closer to Bridport.

Patients from across West Dorset previously faced an 80-mile round trip to Poole for the specialist treatment but the major investment will enable easier access for many patients.

David Tett, a trustee at the Dorset County Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and a former mayor of Bridport, said the announcement would be welcome news for patients across West Dorset.

"Like chemotherapy, radiotherapy is a most vital treatment for the cancer sufferer," he said.

"Travelling to Poole, for some patients, can be very taxing and most stressful. This does not help in the recovery from the dreaded disease.

"Whilst the former service is now available in Bridport for patients living in the west of the county, it will not be before 2017, when the radiography unit will be centred on the site of the Dorset County Hospital – it cannot come quickly enough."

As well as ending the need for West Dorset patients to travel to Poole, the new treatment centre will also free up capacity at Poole Hospital to treat more cancer patients from the rest of the county.

The state-of-the-art facility will be electronically assess patient needs, plan their care and treatment.

Dr Tamas Hickish, clinical director for oncology and cancer services at the hospital, said: "Specialist radiotherapy treatment should be given to around half of those patients with cancer and its use is expanding.

"By locating the replacement alongside a new linac [a specialist radiotherapy machine] in Dorchester, we are expanding capacity and implementing a solution which will bring huge benefits to cancer patients in Dorset, especially those in the west of the region.

"This plan also provides capacity in Poole to replace its older linacs with new machines, without having to lose radiotherapy capacity."

Patricia Miller, chief executive of Dorset County Hospital, added: "We are delighted to be working with Poole Hospital and the Dorset Cancer Centre on this project, which will benefit many patients.

"This is an exciting expansion of our capability locally and I am sure everyone connected with the hospital will be thrilled that specialist radiotherapy treatment will be available in Dorchester."

It is anticipated that patients will be able to benefit from facilities at the new centre by late 2017.

A SPECIAL service will be held to mark the 150th anniversaries of two village churches.

St Peter's, in Eype, and St Paul's, in Broadoak, were both consecrated in 1865 – a century and a half ago this year.

The two churches are pairing up for a choral evensong service to be held at St Peter's on Sunday, August 30th, starting at 6.30pm.

The service will be conducted by the Reverend Jan Delaney, with assistance from the Reverend Elaine Marsh and two of Symondsbury's former priests.

Singing will be led by Chris Reynolds and members of the Broadoak Village Choir, with Campbell Hughes playing the organ.

A collection will be taken in support of the Salisbury Diocese and South Sudan Medical Link, a fund that has been running successfully for the past 40 years.

Refreshments will be provided by the Friends of St Peter's group after the service.

Throughout the Bank Holiday weekend, the church will also be staging a flower festival with displays contributed by several churches on the theme of Bridport's marine heritage.

The church will be open from 10.30am to 5pm throughout the Bank Holiday weekend, with teas, coffees and cake served.

Entry is free but donations are invited.

The flower festival will run alongside an art exhibition by Philippa Young, arranged through the Eype Centre for the Arts, which runs from Saturday, August 15th to Monday, August 31st.

Dozens of people turned out at the Woodman Inn to support the group and managed to raise a total of £525.

"We have to say a huge thank you to all the Bridport businesses who donated vouchers and prizes, and also to the great local attractions who very generously sent us complimentary family tickets to their attractions, including Haynes Motor museum, Farmer Palmers, Pecorama and the Weymouth and Sealife Adventure Park and Tower.

"The money will be used to cover the insurance costs of the playgroup for another year, plus some new table top toys, games and new baby toys."

Army commission for Bridport man

A BRIDPORT cadet has been commissioned as an officer of the British Army after completing an intensive training regime at the prestigious Sandhurst Academy.

Thomas Newman, 25, said he was "very proud and honoured" to have reached the end of the gruelling 44-week course, which examined all aspects of his physical and mental aptitude.

■ HIGH FLYER: Bridport cadet Thomas Newman was commissioned as a British Army officer at Sandhurst Academy earlier this month

Tom, who had not considered a military career before graduating from university in 2012, received his commission at the Sovereign's Parade in front of proud family members earlier this month.

The Queen's representative, Air Chief Marshal Sir Stuart Peach, also attended the ceremony.

Having completed the rigorous selection process in 2013, Tom worked on improving his strength and general fitness before arriving at Sandhurst as an officer cadet last autumn.

"There is no year like the one I have just spent training at Sandhurst to earn my commission," he said.

"I have made the most unique and binding friendships during this time. Weeks of exercises in the bitter cold and wet of the Brecon Beacons and trench-digging in Norfolk pushed us all to the limit – it was physically exhausting completing many of the tasks, often with little rest or sleep."

Tom gained a degree in Philosophy and Theology from Heythrop College, University of London, and applied to train as an officer at the Army Recruitment Office in the summer of 2012.

There was no military pedigree in his immediate family when he signed up, though several relatives had served in the First and Second World Wars.

"I thought I was ready for Sandhurst," he added. "But there is nothing that can prepare you for the first five weeks when we were confined to barracks and regularly worked 18-hour days, not including preparation work for the following day's training."

"It was a tough introduction to the army culture but it taught us all so much."

"After the initial shock I grew to love my new life and the sometimes daunting challenges placed before me. All were overcome with determination, and the teamwork and comradeship Sandhurst builds."

Tom said he was looking forward to a few weeks of leave before moving on to join the Royal Logistics Corps in Gloucestershire.

Neighbourhood Plan public meeting at West Bay

MEMBERS of the West Bay Community Forum are holding a public meeting on Thursday, September 3rd at 7.30pm in the Salt House, West Bay.

There will be a guest speaker to talk about the Neighbourhood Plan along with representatives from Bridport Town Council and West Dorset District Council.

The Neighbourhood Plan is a community led framework, which will be the guide for future developments in Bridport, West Bay and the surrounding area for several years to come.

A steering group has been set up to look in detail at key issues in the area, and this will be an opportunity for local people to get information, ask questions and raise important issues.

Award for 'outstanding' Samuel

■ SHINING EXAMPLE: A Bridport schoolboy has been presented with a prestigious award from the Axminster Catenians.

St Catherine's School pupil Samuel Stunt (pictured) collected the plaque in recognition of the "outstanding example" he set to fellow students.

Each year the school's headteacher selects one pupil who has best demonstrated all-round Christian values – in and out of the classroom – to receive the award.

And Samuel was chosen for his tireless efforts to support others during their school life.

The Catenians, who support Catholic schools in East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset, sent president David Gale (left) along to present the award to Samuel and St Catherine's headteacher Frances Guppy (right) recently.

Nature rocks visitors to West Bay

HUNDREDS of people flocked to West Bay last week to find out everything there is to know about our local coastline at the Jurassic Coast Nature Rocks fun days.

Locals and holidaymakers were able to make paper mache animals as part of Dr Roberts 'Cabinet of Curiosities', find out more about fossils found along the Jurassic Coast and decorate eggs similar to the famous 'Chideock Egg lady' Chrissie Squire, at the three day event organised by Bridport Museum and the Jurassic Coast Trust.

Nichola Blackmore, assistant curator at Bridport Museum, said: "The Nature Rocks fun days have done fantastically well.

"Artist Darrell Wakelam created lovely creatures as part of Dr Roberts inspired 'Cabinet of Curiosities' which we will be putting up in the museum.

"We had Martin Maudsley, who is a very good storyteller, entertaining the children and lots of different organisations pulling together to create a welcoming and inclusive force.

"During the three days of activities we have been very busy and thankfully the weather has been on our side."

Guy Kerr, of the Jurassic Coast Trust, was also on hand during the days with information on what the trust does and current projects.

He said: "Nature Rocks is a fantastic opportunity to engage children and their families with the Jurassic Coast world heritage site.

"We attracted people from all over the country this year who were impressed by the variety and creativity on offer.

Forty officers deployed in rural crime round-up

SPECIAL constables have targeted rural criminals in a two-day sweep across West Dorset.

A team of 40 officers worked with the Wiltshire and Hampshire constabularies during the cross-border patrols earlier this month.

Villages around Bridport were among those monitored as part of the 48-hour operation, which covered 1,400 square miles on Saturday August 8th and Sunday August 9th.

The programme aimed to patrol communities which had previously been targeted by criminals committing burglaries, thefts and other common rural crimes. Several stop checks were also made on vehicles over the course of the weekend.

One vehicle was seized in the Bridport area after the driver was found to have no insurance.

Special Inspector Ben Muspratt, of Dorset Police, said: "This is the fifth operation of its kind, which has been led by the Special Constabulary. We are continuing to develop this operation to target those who commit rural crime across all counties involved.

"It is very clear that this high visibility operation has had a positive impact on the community. It has demonstrated to residents that all three forces are committed to tackling rural crime. We want to send out a very clear message to criminals that we will not tolerate such activity."

Bridport charity receives funding boost

A BRIDPORT-based charity has had a boost from Bluebird Care's Community Grant.

The Bridport and District Good Neighbours Scheme, part of Pathways to Care, was presented with a cheque for £250 at a cream tea afternoon for their volunteers earlier this month.

The group provides an information helpline and short-term volunteer help to those in need in the local area.

The 40 volunteers currently offering their time regularly provide a range of support that includes transportation, shopping, light practical tasks and visiting.

Jackie Webb, coordinator of the Good Neighbourhood Scheme, said: "We were very pleased to welcome Chris Scriven (Bluebird Care Dorset director) to our cream tea and to receive the Bluebird Care grant for £250.

"While donations from our clients usually cover the costs of our volunteers' expenses, it was decided recently that Pathways to Care should pay rent to Good Books bookshop where we are based and whose volunteers take our messages, so we are looking at other available funding, and the grant is a welcome boost to our income.

"I commend Bluebird Care on this initiative and it is good to know that many other schemes will benefit from the community care grant in future months."

The grant scheme, which was launched earlier in the year, involves the provision of a £250 grant each month to a different worthwhile cause benefiting vulnerable people in Dorset.

Chris Scriven said: "We were delighted to be able to provide these funds to an invaluable cause within the Bridport community.

"While staffed by volunteers, the scheme still has core costs to cover and the application for the grant was made to assist in covering the cost of rental contribution for the office.

"Often funding is only available to cover particular projects or events leading to definite outcomes and the need of organisations to meet their basic costs in order to provide these services can be overlooked.

"While our grant may have been requested for what could be considered 'behind the scenes' use, we are certain that it will be put to very good use in providing foundation support for a very worthy scheme."

The Bridport and District Good Neighbour Scheme would welcome any further donations or support for their work and would also be keen to hear from anybody interested in volunteering, particularly anyone who enjoys driving and meeting people and who has a few hours a week to spare.

Those interested should contact Jackie Webb at jacquelinepapps@gmail.com

Also at the event, presentations and thanks were given to Jo O'Farrell who is retiring as a trustee of Pathways to Care and Good Books.

Jo was a trustee at Good Books for around 10 years, taking three years off while she was manager there, and was with Pathways to Care since it took over the Good Neighbours Scheme around five years ago.

She was presented with a bunch of flowers for her dedication to the charities.

Jo O'Farrell said: "I feel very privileged to have served both charities, working over the years with so many people who give their time and talents so generously for the benefit of this community.

"I am very grateful for all the cards, gifts and kind words given to me.

"I will still continue to support and promote both charities as and when I can."

West Bay Day thanks

MAY I through your pages thank all the local people and businesses who volunteered and/or provided sponsorship for both Pirates Day and West Bay Day this year.

The events raised about £1,900 to set up a fund to provide grants for smaller local groups who work for the good of our community.

In addition, the day brought in £393 for Weldmar Hospicecare Trust by selling candles for the Candlelit Walk on the Jurassic Pier, The RNLI took £651 at the Salt House with their cream teas, and the Somerset Air Ambulance gained £562 from a collection and raffle at the Classic Cars rally on the Esplanade.

Fourteen other local traders or charities attended on the day and raised over £1,000 for their own causes bringing in further income to the area and showcasing some of the great resources West Bay has to offer.

Every business we spoke to in the bay said they had a bumper day's trade and altogether it is estimated that over £10,000 was added to the economy of West Bay.

We would like to mention especially the Harbourside Carnival Club for their support by manning the overflow Car Park, Simon Warry from the Crown Inn for the excellent outside Bar, the classic car owners and Bridport Classic Bike Club (who also provided and erected the Marquee). Sponsors; John Hooke, Clive Richards, Townsends, West Dorset Leisure, Simon Radcliffe Nick Dunford, Morrisons, Jewsons, West Bay Websites, Wynns Fun Fair, Chesil Model Planes Club for their wonderful demonstration, Chesil Theatre Supplies for lighting up the East Cliff, and once again Cains Farm without whose massive vehicles we would not have a stage for the bands to perform on, Dave Goulden and West FM and finally West Dorset District Council and the Harbourmaster's team.

Bridport Police appeal for witnesses after shoplifting offense

BRIDPORT police officers are appealing for witnesses to come forward in connection with a shoplifting offence in the town.

At around 9.30am on Saturday, July 18th, a man entered the Waitrose store on West Street and stole a large quantity of high value toiletry products.

After entering the store, he took a trolley, placed a 'bag for life' in it and picked up various items, including cosmetics and electronic products from the health and beauty aisle.

He then left the shop holding the bag full of goods, which he made no attempt to pay for.

PC Alison Gale of Bridport police said: "I am keen to trace the man in this CCTV image."

"I am appealing to anyone who recognises him to please call me on 101.

"All calls will be treated in strict confidence."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting crime number 55150053302.

Alternatively, call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111 where mobile phone tariffs may apply.

Euro cash for community groups

A TREASURE trove of European Union cash is to be made available to community organisations in the Bridport area this year, writes Jack Dixon.

Around £1.4 million is being set aside for projects that will benefit the rural economy in southern Dorset.

The funding scheme, part of the EU's rural development programme, will help to support the development of rural businesses and community organisations.

The cash has been awarded to the Southern Dorset Local Action Group, which will start accepting grant applications next month.

A spokesman for the group said:

"The LAG wants to hear from people who would like to be involved, helping to decide where grants would make the most difference and to monitor the progress of the programme and the projects they fund.

"The only requirements you need to take part are an enthusiasm for your local community or business sector, knowledge of the LAG area and one or more of the project areas the LAG funds: farming, tourism, forestry, rural businesses, culture and heritage, and rural services."

The LAG area covers the Purbeck District, Portland and West Dorset District Council areas from Lyme Regis to Dorchester.

On your bike for Ride+Stride

DORSET residents of all ages are gearing up to pedal for their parish at this year's Ride+Stride event.

The national annual fundraising day, organised locally by Dorset Historic Churches Trust (DHCT), invites participants to cycle, walk and even ride a horse to Dorset's churches and chapels on September 12th.

There is no official route and participants seek sponsorship to visit as many churches as they like.

Riders and striders will be raising money for the maintenance and repair of Dorset's historic churches, with all sponsorship money going towards DHCT and their nominated church.

Over 300 churches across towns and villages will be open throughout the day, including churches in Bridport, Bothenhampton, Loders, Beaminster, Broadwindsor and Stoke Abbott, amongst many others.

Simon Pomeroy, chairman of DHCT, said: "The annual Ride+Stride event is a great way for all the family to explore some of our wonderful local churches either on foot, by bicycle, wheelchair or on horseback whilst raising funds to support their local church and the important work that DHCT does across the country.

"We are very much looking forward to this year's event and hope to see many people out and about enjoying the Dorset countryside on Saturday, September 12th."

Last year's event raised a record £81,000 in sponsorship, with 197 parish communities taking part in the fundraising events.

The trust hope that more riders and striders from even more communities will take part this year, gathering pledges on paper forms or through Just Giving on the trust's website.

The trustees award the Morshead Trophy to the parish, which they consider to be the most deserving and last year, St Osmund's Church in Evershot topped the list with £2,800 raised from their cyclist Richard Campbell.

For a full list of churches open in Dorset, visit <https://dhctnews.wordpress.com/ride-stride/>

For more information about Ride+Stride, contact Anna Butler, the Ride+Stride coordinator, on 01305 260004 or email anna-butler@hotmail.co.uk or visit the DHCT website www.dhct.org.uk

Old hurts still hurting?

"STIFF upper lip" has a lot to answer for. Trying to ignore feelings can just make it worse. Like trying to hold lids on volcanoes. Sooner or later they'll erupt. Sooner or later unresolved emotional issues can burst through and wreak havoc.

The trouble is that our conscious, thinking mind really is only the tip of the iceberg. Most of the power is below the surface, on a subconscious level. So when old feelings erupt we can be helpless to do anything about it, consciously.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, can use hypnotherapy and her years of experience to help you. She has a very down to earth approach and always tailors the therapy to the person. You just need to want to change and then Susan can help you to help yourself.

Hypnotherapy helps in so many ways. To clear tensions and anxieties. To restore confidence and well-being. To break free of unwanted bad habits. And much much more.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and has helped many people. Take a look at her website www.beltain.co.uk or phone 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

Last summer the Dorchester BID (in association with the Town Council) ran the highly successful 'Sporting Country Flags' competition. The feedback from the shops, mums and dads, grandparents and of course, the kids was so positive that we had to have another one this summer!

This year's competition.....Are you a super sleuth? We are looking to the children of the Dorchester area (and our visitors of course) to prove how good their detection and observational skills are when it comes to finding secret locations of shops and businesses around town. There are two age groups this year 10yrs and under, 11yrs and over (max 16yrs). Both age groups will have 1st second and third prizes of £70, £40 & £20 in the form of vouchers to spend, where possible in a shop in Dorchester of their choice (some shops last year added extra to the prize too!)

The children entering will be on a detective mission: All participating shops will have no visible clue from the outside that they are in the competition, but they will have a close up photograph taken of either an iconic part of their building, part of a logo or some other good visual clue as to where the photo was taken. Some shots might be close-up photography; others might be a clue by the kind of products sold. Some will be easy some much harder, so it should test the detective in all those entering!

Once a shop/business has been identified by the photo, the young super sleuth needs to go into the business and (hopefully) politely ask for a sticker for their collection. If you are a parent please go in with them if you can. This sticker will be a miniature version of the photo to add to their collection. The winners in each age group will be drawn out of a hat but if no one has a full set then it will be the ones with the most correct answers.

Our spies are everywhere! Like last year, budding super sleuths will be able to tweet/facebook their own clues to friends if they want or ask our secret agent, @Dorchdude on twitter or via our facebook page (Dorchester Thomas Hardy Country) for cryptic clues to help find some of the harder ones. 'Like/Follow' these accounts to get the latest on the competition, clues and other useful information.

How to enter: It's simple, just go to either the TIC (Tourist Information Centre) in Antelope walk or the Town Council office in North Square to get your free Mission Report (available from Sat 18th July) and then you will be ready to start solving the photo clues and locations.

The full set of Photo clues to be hunted down will be available as a download from our website (www.dorchesterdorset.com) from the 18th July and for those with no computer access they will be available from the TIC and the Town Council office in North Square.

Project director Phil Gordon comments "This was huge fun last year and so many shops reported how they enjoyed talking to the super sleuths who became more confident as time went on! I can't wait to get started again- great fun on a rainy day when it's sometimes hard to find things to do with the kids, but in the better weather too it should encourage more families to explore parts of the town that they are less familiar with and maybe discover one or two hidden gems of shops tucked away down side streets".

Editors Note for more info call Phil Gordon on 07799 494886

'Songs of the Sea' with RNLI Fun Day

A MUSIC and dance festival in West Bay will run in conjunction with this year's RNLI Fun Day on Sunday, August 23rd.

The Bridport Branch of the RNLI will host the festival that will focus on Songs of the Sea and is the first move to establishing a 'Shanty Festival' planned for next May 2016, with proceeds being raised for the RNLI.

An air-sea rescue display is scheduled for 1pm and this will probably be the last time such a display will be seen in West Bay, as the Coast-guard helicopter is being re-located.

A children's best dressed pirate competition, a host of musicians and a duck race will complete the days activities. There will be cream teas and light refreshments in the Salt house and lots of stalls and games for all ages to enjoy while helping to 'Save Lives at Sea'.

Braving the shave for Macmillan

CHARITY Champion Melanie Rich is taking on an incredibly brave challenge – shaving her head in the name of charity, writes Peter Hodges.

Melanie, who is the manager at Dorset Fire and Chimney Centre in Bridport, is playing her part in the 'Brave the Shave' campaign for Macmillan Nurses in memory of family members and friends who have been affected by cancer.

"This is for my father Tony McManus, my favourite and much-loved uncle Bob McColl, a truly beautiful and kind lady Annette Frampton, and all other members of my family who have been taken by this disease," she said.

The event will take place in Bucky Doo Square on August 22nd at 1:30pm and supporters can donate to the cause by visiting Melanie's 'Just Giving' page www.justgiving.com/MelBravesTheShave

She added: "I'm doing it for all the mothers and fathers out there who have lost their beloved children and for all those children and young people who are bravely fighting now and for anyone else who has lost a loved one through cancer.

"The Macmillan nurses do a wonderful job helping and supporting cancer patients and their families and none of us know when we or our loved ones will need their care. This is my way of saying thank you."

Morcombelake art exhibition

SOME of Morcombe-lake's best artists will be exhibiting their views of the local coastline as part of Bridport and West Dorset Open Studios.

The group's 'Coast' exhibition will include a selection of artists' work in a range of different medias.

Ronnie Creswell, a member of the group, said: "Over recent years the art group members have adopted different themes to interpret in different ways for the year, culminating with the annual exhibition at our community hall.

"We have several sketching trips to different venues along the coastline, which will feed into the diverse selection of work by members on the coastal theme.

"Between us, we use a wide variety of media and styles, including hand printing methods such as etchings, collagraphs and monoprints as well as painting and drawing in mixed media, oil, acrylic and watercolours.

"Also planned for this exhibition is a display of photographs and found objects showing what can be seen along the coast, with the addition of some three-dimensional work this year.

"We are a very well established group of artists who meet and work together at this venue."

MEMBERS of Morcombelake Art Group will be opening their 'Coast' exhibition to the public as part of Bridport and West Dorset Open Studios

Members taking part include, Eric Hawkins, Sue Knight, Barbara Green, Sue Warren, Elizabeth Fortescue, Joanne Brown, Heather Coley, Ronnie Creswell, Annie Clough, Barbara Whiteley, Howard Flanagan, Sue Calder, Joan Dyson and Ann Gray.

The exhibition will be held at the James Hargreaves Hall, The Green, Morcombelake, DT6 6EA, and will be open from Saturday, August 22nd to Monday, August 31st between 10am and 5pm.

There is disabled parking behind the hall and a ramp for wheelchair access.

Entry is free, refreshments will be available and unframed work, along with a variety of artists' cards will be for sale.

The Best of West Dorset's Livestock on Show

FOR the last few months farmers in the area have been preparing their livestock – cattle, pigs, sheep, goats – ready to compete at the Melplash Show. The planning and preparation that has to be undertaken to ensure that their animals look the best for show day cannot be underestimated. For example training a beef animal to be lead with a halter around a ring in front of thousands of people will have taken months of practise.

"It is going to be an exciting year for the livestock section this year.. all classes are up and it is great to be welcoming a number of new competitors," said Show Secretary, Lucy Hart "

Visitors to the show will be able to walk amongst the livestock and see breeds of farm animals from all around the world including a number of rare breeds. Their owners will only to be too happy to answer questions and very happy to be photographed!

Lyme Folk Weekend - August 21st-23rd

GET FOLK-READY FOR THE WEEKEND

THIS COMING weekend sees the return of Lyme Folk - three days of full-on festivities - with the cream of folk lining up to play at venues, large and small, all around the town, including a continuous stream of free concerts on the seafront.

With nearly 50 acts, on three different stages, as well as pop-up gigs in cafes and pubs, the weekend promises to be even bigger and better than in previous years say the organisers.

Over three nights, one venue, Marine Theatre, will host headline concerts from the alt-folk combo Turin Brakes, the multi-award-winning husband and wife duo, Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman and Lyme Folk Weekend's very own patron, Jim Causley & Friends respectively.

Each evening will also feature a raft of up-and-coming acts at The Pilot Boat. Here, there's an opportunity to get a glimpse of stars in the making. For example, last year featured the all-girl Devon trio, Wildwood Kin, who this year were nominated by Radio 2 Folk Awards as best new folk act.

Saturday is the busiest day of the weekend kicking off with a grand Morris Parade down the high street in the morning, followed by a massed dance off on the seafront and a spectacular finale in the early evening? With Morris dancers converging on Lyme from all around the country, dancing in the streets is guaranteed over the three days.

This year, the Mariners Hotel will host first Folk BBQ on Saturday afternoon in the hotel's gardens overlooking Lyme Bay, featuring The Uke Man League, a four-piece ukulele, band with a cheeky set-list to pave the way for a full evening's entertainment throughout town.

Saturday night also sees the return of the popular Ceilidh which will be held in the Langmoor Marquee on the seafront, which incidentally also acts as the festival beer tent and the venue for workshops and sing-alongs throughout the weekend.

And for the first time, this year's festival will be supporting the blood cancer charity, Anthony Nolan, with two events to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Frank Purslow's collection of English folk songs, Marrow Bones. These will be held in the Langmoor Marquee on Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

Turin Brakes onstage at the Marine Theatre during their 2013 performance

Julie Sheppard, the festival's publicist said "This promises to be our best festival so far...it's insanely ambitious with music planned all over town for the entire weekend. But from my experience it's often the unplanned performances which create that special Lyme vibe. So, my advice is - grab a free copy of the programme, plan your time, buy your tickets - then just go with the flow!"

Copies of the free programme will be available throughout the town over the weekend and from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre.

■ Tickets for concerts at Marine Theatre from www.lymefolk.com or 01297 442138 (Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis).

Admission to Lyme Folk BBQ at Mariners Hotel, concerts at The Pilot Boat and Saturday's Ceilidh - all £5 on the door.

All other events are free.

Paul Young-led Los Pacaminos come to the Marine Theatre

Los Pacaminos

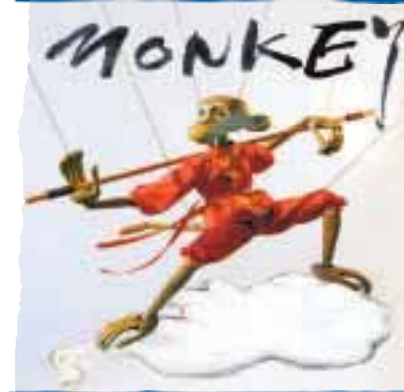

LED BY Paul Young, Los Pacaminos are an Americana group from London who play music from the heart.

Originally formed as an opportunity to play their shared passion of the Border, Tex-Mex and Americana music that the members of the band love, they started as a practice band playing when other musical commitments allowed – top musicians just playing for fun. Word got around as word does and soon the band started playing gigs. Paul is not the only luminary in this seven piece band. Some of the best musicians in the business have teamed up to present an incendiary mix of classics and original material.

Paul says "Los Pacaminos started out just for fun, playing simply for the pleasure of it, and it just took off from there. What's really nice is that everyone else in the band can sing too, and they do, all in their own different styles. It's real bar room stuff, foot stompers, not too many slow songs – a real party atmosphere."

Los Pacaminos play at the Marine Theatre on Friday, August 28th, with doors opening at 7.15pm. Tickets are £14.50 (full) or £13.50 (concessions) available by calling the box office on 01297 442138 or from the website at www.marinetheatre.com

There are still a few spaces available so book now to avoid disappointment. October will see a Halloween theme night on Friday, October 30th so keep an eye out for that menu next month.

As summer starts to come towards an end and autumn gets ever closer it is also time to start thinking about (say it quietly...) Christmas!

With a special three-course menu followed by a disco to celebrate the festive season, there's no better place for your Christmas Party. Kinetics – the moving theatre piece causing a stir

A thought-provoking new play debuts in Dorchester this autumn, supported by Dorchester Arts and Parkinson's UK

DORCHESTER ARTS is delighted to work with Sue Wylie of Wildcard Productions in co-commissioning her exciting new play, Kinetics. Based on a true story, this much-anticipated new theatre piece explores an unlikely friendship between a teenage boy who is into free running (Parkour) and a middle-aged woman who has early onset Parkinson's. They bond through a common ground – the desire to move.

Sue Wylie has performed in many national as well as local theatre productions, including her own production of the sell out show Daisy Pulls It Off at Dorchester Arts performed in April of this year.

This inspiring project marks a new phase in her theatrical career by not only producing and performing, but script writing as well. Sue explains further, 'Four years ago shortly after my 50th birthday, I was diagnosed with Parkinson's. After the initial shock I knew I wanted to write about it. As a professional actress I know how communication through a script is a powerful tool.'

'I was teaching drama at a college at the time and discovered a 16-year-old student in my tutor group was free running on the school roof! The exhilaration was his release and I was intrigued by the risks he took in his addiction to this extreme sport, known as Parkour. How interesting to contrast that with a middle-aged woman whose world of movement is slowly becoming eroded. What if their paths should accidentally cross and an unlikely friendship form? I knew there was a play script in there and thus 'Kinetics' was born.'

The first workshop performance of the play was held in June and was incredibly well received. The unique approach to a potentially dark and difficult subject matter has already drawn the attention of many people and organisations including the local Parkinson's UK support group.

So much so, Barrie Taylor-Hain, Chairman of the Weymouth & Dorchester branch has pledged £1,500 in support of the play and its future development as a touring production. Barrie adds, 'After I listened to the read through of the play, I found it to be very true of the way that people react when they are first diagnosed. It goes into great detail of the feelings of a person with Parkinson's, and shows awareness of the way in which other people can help them to overcome the initial shock and denial and help them lead a full and happy life.'

Mark Tattersall, Artistic Director at Dorchester Arts is excited to help develop new theatre that challenges and inspires, 'We are committed to supporting and promoting local drama in whichever way we can. When Sue Wylie asked for help with developing and producing her new play we didn't hesitate for a moment – it's a superb piece of writing, tackling an important and fascinating subject with humour, elegance and emotion, and we believe it has a big future.'

Sue is already in talks with other venues across Dorset to perform the piece this autumn, and aims to bring it to Edinburgh Fringe Festival in 2016.

In celebration of this exciting new play Dorchester Arts has also joined forces with Jackson Turner at Train Hard who will offer free Parkour workshops for anyone aged 6+ at the new Dorchester Parkour Park on the day of the performance. More details and booking for both events can be found the Dorchester Arts website.

Kinetics will be performed on Saturday, September 5th at Dorchester Corn Exchange, High East Street DT1 1HF Box Office: 01305 266 926 www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

Sean Hughes presents

Mumbo Jumbo

THROUGHOUT his life Sean Hughes has been battling to stay on the right side of sanity. This is because in middle age he has realised that the two sides of his brain are in constant conflict. There is common sense against mumbo jumbo and mumbo jumbo seems to have the upper hand.

His new show, 'Mumbo Jumbo', consists of stories including being serenaded at the break of dawn by Robert Smith, trekking mountain gorillas in Rwanda and coming to the conclusion that he will never have a proper conversation with his dear mum. There will be a few poems and a 3-minute musical about ageing too.

Sean Hughes brings 'Mumbo Jumbo' to Bridport Arts Centre on Thursday, September 12th at 8pm. Tickets are £13 or £11 from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204

Award-winning Bridport Musical Theatre Company presents West Side Story

FOLLOWING last year's sell out production of Grease this versatile and talented young company bring you their most challenging production to date with the classic musical "West Side Story". With ground breaking choreography by the legendary Jerome Robbins, book by Arthur Laurents, an unforgettable score by Leonard Bernstein and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, this musical changed the face of musical theatre forever.

The world's greatest love story takes to the streets in this landmark Broadway musical that is one of the theatre's finest accomplishments. Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet is transported to 50s New York city, as two young idealistic lovers find themselves caught between warring street gangs' the American Jets and the Puerto Rican Sharks. The struggle to survive in a world of hate, violence and prejudice is one of the most innovative, heart-wrenching and relevant musical dramas of our time. Famous songs include tonight, Maria, I Feel Pretty, Somewhere and America.

Director Dave Swaffield said to accommodate the complexity of the set and large cast this year's production will be staged at the Electric Palace.

West Side Story will run from Wednesday, August 26th – Saturday, August 29th with evening performances at 7.30 p.m. including a Saturday matinee at 2.00 p.m. Tickets are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre 01308 424901 or online: www.seetickets.com

Paul Lamb & the King Snakes Set to launch monthly Blues Night at The Electric Palace

PAUL LAMB & the King Snakes bring mind blowing energy and electrifying stage presence to every show.

And they're appearing at Bridport Electric Palace on Friday, September 4th to launch the venue's monthly Blues Night, which will be held on the first Friday of the month.

Paul Lamb is the undisputed master of the harmonica, with Mark Knopfler of Dire Straits saying 'this is blues harp as good as it gets'.

Paul's spent the last thirtysomething years whoopin' and hollerin' in clubs in his native North-East plus a later move to London, in concert and on festival stages, creating a personal synthesis of his harmonica heroes and his own unique and innate talent.

He's represented Britain in the World Harmonica Championships, working with his particular mentor, Sonny Terry, and with any number of other blues artists who've visited these shores.

Over the years Paul Lamb &

the King Snakes have won countless awards, sold record breaking quantities of albums and been inducted into the British Blues Awards Hall of Fame alongside the likes of Peter Green & John Mayall.

There's a great deal of experience behind vocalist and rhythm guitarist Chad Strentz, too. He started out as a rockabilly hound, encouraged by the wilder excesses of Gene Vincent, Johnny Burnette and Mac Curtis, with some Elvis and Little Richard in there for extra relish.

But if you want to talk experience, take a long listen to bass player and vocalist Rod Demick. He formed his first group, the Vibros, when he was eleven and later graduated to Wheels, the only R&B competition in Belfast for Van Morrison and Them.

The youngest member is Ryan 'Junior' Lamb. Having the legendary harmonica player, Mr Paul Lamb, as his father, you could say he was born to play the blues. However make no mistake – it's because of his outstanding guitar talent, rather than nepotism, that landed Junior the job of lead guitarist in the King Snakes in 2007.

Dino Coccia was the King Snakes drummer in 1991 & now back in the drum seat coming full circle. He is a talented musician who brings to the band a strong foundation that allows for the instrumental and vocal expression that the band attains.

Tickets cost just £10.50 (£10 + 50p booking fee) in advance from the Electric Palace Box Office or Bridport TIC or £12 on the door.

Tickets through Electric Palace Box Office (open Tues-Sat, 10am-4pm) 01308 428354

Bridport TIC (open Mon-Sat 10am-3pm) on 01308 424901 or online through Seetickets.com

The Beaux Strategem

Electric Palace to show National Theatre Live's performance of The Beaux Strategem

NATIONAL Theatre Live's performance of The Beaux Strategem on Thursday, September 3rd.

The 'Beaux': Mr Aimwell and Mr Archer, two charming, dissolute young men who have blown their fortunes in giddy London. Shamed and debt-ridden, they flee to provincial Lichfield. Their 'Strategem': to marry for money.

Lodged at the local inn, posing as master and servant, they encounter a teeming variety of human obstacles: a crooked landlord, a fearsome highwayman, a fervent French Count, a maid on the make, a drunken husband, a furious butler, a natural healer and a strange, turbulent priest.

But their greatest obstacle is love. When the Beaux meet their match in Dorinda and Mrs Sullen they are most at risk, for in love they might be truly discovered.

George Farquhar's final play is a fabulous carnal comedy.

National Theatre's live performance of Beaux' Strategem will be shown at the Electric Palace on Thursday, September 3rd, with doors opening at 6pm and the showing at 7pm.

Tickets are £10.50 in advance or £12 on the door. Advance tickets from www.seetickets.com or by calling the box office on 01308 424901.

JEREMY Smith, Senior Manager of Symonds & Sampson's award winning branch in Beaminster is delighted to have been chosen to market an outstanding and extended property just off Shorts Lane. Jeremy commented 'our vendor had a number of valuations both from agents in Bridport and Beaminster, but we were grateful she chose us not only for our superior service, but also because we are on the property website Zoopla where most of our London enquiries come from. The property which is an absolute tardis, needs to be seen to be truly appreciated.

Hall, large sitting room, good size dining room, fine kitchen/breakfast room, three bedrooms, one being en-suite and a family bathroom. On the first floor is a very good size master bedroom with en-suite shower room.

Externally a true feature of the property are the very large lawned gardens and the fine balcony which overlooks them and the surrounding fields. There is also a useful workshop, parking for two vehicles and a garage.

We advise early viewing of this property which is on the market for £450,000 for the freehold. Please contact us on 01308 863100 to arrange a viewing.

Just Add Fuel™... Just Got Better

JUST Add Fuel™ is PEUGEOT's innovative and unique fixed-cost motoring package – and now it's available to teenage drivers.

Since launch in July 2010, over 27,000 UK drivers have taken advantage of Just Add Fuel™ from PEUGEOT. Along with being hassle free, its low single monthly payment to cover all motoring costs and exceptional value for money have been the appealing factors.

But it has only been available to drivers aged 21 or older – until now. PEUGEOT has again rewritten the retail rule book and, thanks to the use of advanced telematics technology, younger drivers can benefit for the first time.

Just Add Fuel™ is an innovation which has had a significant influence on UK car-buying patterns. It includes: a single monthly payment to cover all motoring costs, no need to budget for insurance, servicing, road fund licence*, and roadside assistance costs – they are all included, no need to search for cheaper insurance each year, fixed price motoring for three years means peace of mind, a completely transparent motoring package with no hidden costs & the opportunity to drive a new car every three years, so no MOT costs.

Insurance industry data reveals that, statistically, drivers aged 18-20 are at the highest risk of being involved in an accident. Working closely with its policy provider, PEUGEOT is launching a comprehensive fixed cost motoring package which takes that into account.

Neil Moscrop, PEUGEOT Brand Director commented: "Just Add Fuel is recognised as the most significant innovation in vehicle re-tailing for a number of years. Now we can widen its appeal even further, allowing a broader spectrum of drivers to experience the thrill of owning a new PEUGEOT car."

Just Add Fuel™ for those aged 18-20 is only available to PEUGEOT 108 buyers and is priced from just £248 rental per month. The secret is a discreet plug-in telematics device; sent to customers immediately after they take delivery of the popular city car, it attaches to the On-Board Diagnostic (OBD) port under the steering wheel. It's a simple installation which they can do themselves, though their PEUGEOT Dealer will be happy to help if required.

Via satellite tracking, it stores and sends data on the vehicle's speed, acceleration, deceleration and lateral G-forces. This is used to assess the customer's driving style and rate each journey made, on a scale from 1-100. Customers will have access to an online portal where they can review their driving activity.

This is also regularly monitored by the insurer and an aggregate score awarded. Feedback is provided to assist the customer in improving this if necessary. If the score falls below an agreed threshold, the driver will receive a warning. Four warnings a year will result in the insurance policy being cancelled. This may reduce the number of insurance products available to the customer, and/or increase the premiums they are quoted.

Terms and conditions apply, including a requirement for a full UK driving licence, permanent UK residency and no 'fault' insurance claims.

Just Add Fuel™ with telematics is also available to PEUGEOT 108 buyers aged 21-75 who do not have two years' No Claims Discount, or have held a full UK driver's licence for less than two years.

Despite being part of the new car retailing landscape for five years, Just Add Fuel™ remains unique to PEUGEOT.

*Road Fund Licence on a PEUGEOT 108 is £0.

The all-new Jaguar XF: lighter, more efficient and packed with technology

▲ The all-new Jaguar XF

THE all-new Jaguar XF brings an unrivalled blend of design, luxury, technology and efficiency to lead the business car segment, underpinned by class-leading driving dynamics and refinement and impressive total cost of ownership.

The dynamic, coupé-like design is formed around Jaguar's aluminium-intensive architecture and combines the outstanding proportions, elegant surfaces and perfect lines which define all Jaguar cars, with a longer wheelbase, more interior space and exceptionally low aerodynamic drag yet in a lower and shorter body than the car it replaces.

The cabin is a seamless blend of contemporary luxury materials and finishes, traditional Jaguar craftsmanship and state-of-the-art technology, with features such as a reconfigurable 12.3-inch TFT instrument cluster, laser head-up display and the InControl Touch Pro premium infotainment system – the all-new XF is the most connected Jaguar ever.

The 2007 XF was a radical step forward for Jaguar – and for the business car segment. Combining a sleek, coupé-like exterior and a luxurious interior, it set the class benchmark for aesthetics and driving dynamics.

Features such as the rotary shift controller, rotating air vents and phosphor blue ambient lighting set the cabin apart from the competition and made the XF a highly desirable, aspirational vehicle. It was like nothing Jaguar had ever made before, and like nothing the competition could offer. The XF went on to become the most-awarded Jaguar ever.

The all-new XF retains its predecessor's core attributes, but uses Jaguar's aluminium-intensive architecture to enable weight savings of up to 190kg – making the 163PS diesel model 80kg lighter than the nearest competitor – plus an increase in torsional stiffness of up to 28 per cent. The architecture also delivers dramatic improvements in packaging and the proportions so essential to Jaguar design.

The all-new XF is 4,954mm long: at 2,960 the wheelbase is 51mm longer than before, the front overhang 66mm shorter. Though 7mm shorter and 3mm lower than the original XF, rear seat space is class-leading thanks to 15mm more legroom, 24mm more knee-room and up to 27mm more headroom than before. Aerodynamics are also superior: the drag coefficient drops from 0.29 to just 0.26.

The light, stiff body is also fundamental to the all-new XF's superb vehicle dynamics. Double wishbone front suspension and Integral Link rear suspension – combined with near-50:50 weight distribution – deliver the ideal balance between ride and handling.

Adopting Electric Power Assisted Steering (EPAS) maintains Jaguar's leadership in steering feel but also reduces fuel consumption by up to two per cent and three per cent for diesel and petrol models respectively. EPAS also enables functions such as camber compensation and advanced driver assistance systems including lane-keep assist, driver condition monitoring and bay- and parallel park-assist.

Advanced passive damper technology delivers exceptional ride quality as standard through an extra valve which reduces damping forces at low speeds. For even better control the Adaptive Dynamics system monitors body movement 100 times a second and wheel movement 500 times a second to determine the optimum damper settings for the driving conditions.

Jaguar Configurable Dynamics technology, optional on all V6 models, provides the ultimate in control and enables the driver to individually tailor settings of the dampers, steering, engine and eight-speed automatic transmission.

All-Surface Progress Control, developed for low-speed driving in adverse conditions, automatically manages the brakes and the throttle to deliver the best possible traction, enabling the car to pull away smoothly and without drama: the driver only has to steer. ASC operates between 3.6km/h and 30km/h, and the desired speed is set by the driver using the cruise control switches (Automatic transmission only).

Infotainment and connectivity is the most advanced Jaguar has ever offered. The all-new InControl Touch Pro system builds on the intuitive user interface of InControl Touch, and supports all the same features – including InControl Apps, InControl Remote and Wi-Fi hotspot – but offers a 10.2-inch touchscreen and Dual View technology which simultaneously allows the driver to see information such as navigation, while the front seat passenger watches TV or a DVD.

Recognise early danger signs in senior drivers, GEM urges family members

ROAD SAFETY and breakdown cover specialist GEM Motoring Assist is encouraging family members to be wise to the early signs of unsafe driving in their senior relatives.

There are more than four million drivers aged over 70 in the UK. Many are still driving in their 90s, and nearly 200 centenarians still hold licences.

GEM chief executive David Williams MBE comments: "We want as many people as possible to enjoy the freedom of the open road for as long as possible, but only while they are safe."

"Warning signs relating to failing health or reduced ability can develop slowly and gradually in older drivers. This often means they won't be aware of their changing actions or the growing risks they may pose – to themselves and to others – on journeys."

"The only requirement in law for any driver aged over 70 is to declare every three years that they are fit to drive. In the absence of re-testing and mandatory eyesight checks, it's vital that family members and friends are willing to keep an eye on their senior relatives – and take appropriate action if anything causes them concern."

GEM suggests the following signs that suggest a high risk of danger with a requirement for immediate action: 'Close calls' – or 'oops factor' moments where a crash almost happens, dents and scrapes on the car as a result of hitting fences, posts or kerbs or traffic penalty tickets, such as speeding and red traffic light violations.

GEM also advises family members and friends to look out for the following common signs that could indicate an increase in the risks posed by a senior driver. Most are minor on their own, but can combine to present a significantly increased risk: Difficulty seeing traffic lights and road signs, reduced awareness of drivers coming from the side or the rear, not reacting to an approaching emergency siren, slow reaction when required to brake or alter direction suddenly, confusing the accelerator and brake pedals, erratic decision-making, getting flustered or angry over minor matters, difficulty looking over shoulders to check before pulling out, missing familiar exits or turnings, drifting in and out of lanes on motorways and dual carriageways, failing to indicate correctly (or at all) & failing to cancel an indicator.

"If you decide that there is good reason to be concerned about a senior relative, then try to have an informal, friendly chat. If your relative is unwilling to have that conversation, you could attempt to inform their GP, or all else fails, you could report them to the DVLA. You can do this anonymously if you wish," says David Williams.

"Safety has to be everyone's priority, even if you risk upsetting someone close to you. The potential consequences of not acting are ultimately much, much worse."

GEM's recently-published resource, Still Safe to Drive, gives a range of practical advice to help senior drivers stay as safe as possible for as long as possible. Take a look at www.stillsafetodrive.org.uk

Watson double

By Richard Jackman
THE Junior medal was won by the ever-improving Matt Watson, with an excellent score of nett 66. Lewis Gibbons, 68 and Brad Searle, 69 also easily broke nett par to finish 2nd and 3rd.

Matt also won the mid-week stableford with 38 points just pipping George Seed who scored 37.

The Regatta stableford also saw some great scores, the pick of the bunch being Mark Lewis, whose handicap was in the low teens a year ago, now playing off 7, having won with 42 points.

Steven Harrison, 41 and Pete Sargeant 40 were close behind.

Sailing

Prestigious week a success

LYME Regis Sailing club hosted the CoastWaterSports and Zhik National Championships for Scorpions from the 8th to the 14th of August.

This was the key event in the club's calendar and once again put Lyme on the map as being one of the premier dinghy sailing venues in the country.

Principal Race Officer Allan Tyler was in charge on Dan Jaffe's yacht 'Goodwill', supported by four mark boats and six safety boats.

Nine of the scheduled 10 races were sailed over the week despite of the weather being far from ideal.

Fifty eight Scorpion dinghies competed in conditions that ranged from perfect north easterly breezes to weather that was more typical of late autumn with strong south-west-erlies and big seas.

The event was won by Andy McKee & Chris Massey from Dovestone Sailing Club but it was tight at the top all week with seven different race winners, and one point separating first and second overall.

Lyme Regis boats did well, notably Chris Turner & Alex Hayman in 4th and Tim Parsons & Andy Davis in 6th.

Hosting National Championships forms a key part of the club's role of encouraging amateur sailing with over 70 members involved on and off the water.

A spokesman for LRSC said: "We would like to thank the Harbour master and staff without whose support we could have not run this very successful week, and all harbour users for their co-operation.

"We are also grateful for sponsorship from local chandlers CoastWaterSports of Axminster and clothing company Zhik."

Fowler a cut above!

By Howard Larcombe

LYME Regis Golf Club member Kieron Fowler shot five birdies in a four under par 68 in the opening round of the PGA EuroPro Tour competition at Sleafly Hall, Northumberland last week.

The 20-year-old then backed up his fine start with a par round to successfully make the cut for the first time in his short career on the tour.

Unfortunately for all concerned the deciding third round was washed out by wet weather.

So the final result was taken over the two completed rounds leaving Fowler in a tie for 22nd place and a cash reward of £445.

Lyme Regis Gig racing

Lyme clinch creditable third on home waters

LYME Regis Gig Club recently play host to the next round of the gig racing calendar.

In a complete contrast to last year, this year's event was held under a blue sky with very little wind.

An almost calm sea afforded some great racing conditions, although after the Ladies and Mens Supervets race had taken place, the increasing air temperatures together with little or no wind on the water, made the course considerably more demanding than usual.

From a safety perspective, a decision was made following this race to shorten the course.

Preceding this a field of 10 boats entered was the Junior event, which was held over a shorter course.

The Lyme crew in 'Tempest' started well, settling in to the leading pack eventually finishing second behind another partial Lyme crew who helped Bridport's 'Dagger' cross the line in 1st position.

The Ladies & Men's Supervets race earned Lyme a very respectable 4th position in each of their respective races.

In the Ladies A category Lyme's boat 'Rebel' with a composite crew from the Newquay club, topped up with rowers from other clubs, took the lead with Ilfracombe and Swanage in hot pursuit.

The Lyme crew finished in 11th position, ahead of Hampshire-based Hayling Island.

In the Men's A event Lyme's 'Rebel' eventually broke free.

Again, this boat was crewed by a strong Newquay contingent together with other club members who were available. In their wake would be the Weymouth crew in followed by Lyme Regis in 'Tempest' and this is how they finished.

The Ladies B were next off the blocks. Again with rowers from Newquay, declared as a composite crew, 'Rebel' was quickly into an early lead.

Staying within reach of them for most of the course were Brixham and Weymouth the Lyme crew in 'Tempest' finished ahead of Sidmouth and Bristol in 10th position.

Lyme's crew looked likely contenders in the C race as they settled into the leading pack with Weymouth, Brixham in and Ilfracombe. It was the Brixham crew who crossed the line to take 1st position with Lyme finishing in an impressive 4th.

The Men's B crews were next on the start line. This race also took in a composite crew, racing in Lyme's Rebel who eventually finished in third spot behind Brixham and Weymouth.

Much white water was exchanged coming off the start line as the Mens C crews fought to gain an early lead. The Teign crew were among the front runners which included Lyme's 'Tempest', Bristol and Ilfracombe.

The latter crossed the line first with Lyme in third.

Testament to the fact that rowing is good for all ages was borne by the Sidmouth club, as their boat had a rower of 87 years old.

With only three races to go, the top five crews of Weymouth, Lyme, Brixham, Ilfracombe and Bridport were emerging as serious contenders.

The Ladies Vets saw Weymouth, Torridge and Bridport take the podium in that order.

The penultimate race was the Mens Vets which saw Ilfracombe, Lyme Regis and Brixham break away from the pack to take the finishing line in this order ahead of Weymouth, Portland and Bridport.

close finish

The last race - The Mixed crews - was to be the decider. This included a composite crew from Newquay and others and they set the pace.

But hunting them down were Swanage, Ilfracombe, Bristol and Weymouth. But it was Swanage who took the lead with Ilfracombe, Brixham and Weymouth crossing in this order.

Final standings: 1st Weymouth, 2nd Ilfracombe, 23rd Lyme Regis.

◆ Lyme Regis Gig Club would like to thank all of their sponsors for their support and all the harbour users; the fishermen, sailors, powerboaters, etc, for being so supportive throughout the day.

Thanks also to Grahame Foreshaw (Harbourmaster) and all his team for all their help.

Bridport Indoor bowls

Firs knocked off top

SYLVIA and Mike Fletcher & Mel Hargett's Dogwoods have knocked the Firs off the top of the Morning League.

The match between the two was locked at 8-8 before Dogwoods won it with a four count on the last end 2-8.

Cedars head the pack on shot difference despite losing to Reg Dodd, Barry Mapson & Bernard Winton's Gum Trees 10-4.

Last placed Alders pocket dynamo Nova Varney had a fantastic game as they whipped Junipers 19-7.

A late five count gave Tony Sharood, Ann Parkins & Millie Meech's Hazels a 10-6 win over Beeches.

Rosie and Martin Wilton & Peter Varney's Larches ended 11-9 up against Kingswoods.

Lyn Craddock, Keith Hicks & David Drake's Jack Russells roared back to form with a 22-5 win over Airdales and are now snapping at the heels of the leading Foxhounds of Mary Hansford, Mike Parsons & Paul Hallett

Who were 20-11 winners against the Dalmatians.

Lyn and Peter Sandall & Ivor Parker's Beagles had an early seven count on their way to a 20-11 win over Harriers.

Gordon Lee, Geoff Neal & Andy Marsh's Collies went 9-0 up against Great Danes before finally winning 13-8.

Ann Harris, Brian Toms & Mike Craddock's Kerry Blues finished 1,2 to draw with Brian Baker, Gerry Moss and Margaret Pestelle's Labradorers 11-11.

Bridport bowls club

Only the Ladies B team played this week and had a good 60-55 win just missing out on a full house.

Delphine Street, Marion Tocher, Mary Marsh & Janet Bird scoring the vital one on the last end to win 19-18.

Dinah Wilson, Margaret Strange, Chris

Robbins & Joan Griffiths 23-16. Thelma Pratt, Pauline Newitt, Dinah S. Butcher & Liz Newman 18-2.

A friendly against neighbours CHAR-MOUTH was won overall 86-23. Top triple was Dave Smith, R. Herbert & Bill Fox.

A tougher game resulted in a 81-75 win away at MERRIOTT. Top rink; M. Smith, Bob Seadon, M. Strange & B. Parker 23-15.

With no men's Friday games due to rain, the week ended with Allen Bird's PRESIDENT'S DAY which was enjoyed by 90 members and included a day's outing to Paignton on Sunday with a game against the local team.

Mitchem stars as Dorchester beat title chasers

Dorset Premier
DORCHESTER 140-3 BEAT BROADSTONE 139 ALL OUT BY SEVEN WICKETS
DORCHESTER comfortably saw off title challengers Broadstone as they clocked up their 6th win of the summer.

Broadstone had a small chance of pipping Poole and Sherborne to the Dorset Premier title but were easily swept aside at the Dorchester rec, as the home side bounced back after defeat in their previous match.

Dorchester captain Simon Mitchem won the toss, and after the week's downpours, chose to bowl first on a pitch full of moisture.

The Broadstone batting order crumbled under some excellent bowling with only three players reaching double figures as six of the seven Dorchester bowlers picked up wickets.

Broadstone middle order batsman Carlyle Collins showed some staying power at his teammates fell around, Collins was finally dismissed three short of his half century from the bowling of Pete Moxom.

Broadstone were finally bowled out for 139 with Moxom taking the best figures of the day with 2 for 12.

The wicket dried out in the afternoon just as the Dorchester openers walked out to start their innings, and the opening pair, Will Caldwell and Moxom, benefitted from the changing wicket as they put on 29 before Moxom (17) was bowled by Steve Trembath.

Captain Mitchem joined Caldwell at the crease and the two players enjoyed a fantastic partnership of 69 as Dorchester inched toward three figures.

Caldwell fell for 45 after being trapped lbw by Om Ramchandani and Dan Belt, returned to the pavilion pretty quickly after being dismissed lbw without troubling the scoreboard.

Mitchem (64no) and Ian Legg finished off the innings within 40 overs to gain the full 20 league points, to move them ahead of local rivals Martinstown.

Dorchester will finish the season with a match against Parley at Dean Park on August 22nd.

◆ LEADING FROM THE FRONT: Simon Mitchem

WEYMOUTH 156 LOST TO SWANAGE 216 BY 60 RUNS
AFTER recording their first win of the season last week Weymouth failed to build on any momentum and suffered their 15th defeat of the season at home to Swanage.

The home side put the visitors into bat and got off to a great start reducing Swanage to 21 for 3.

However, opener Dan Salmon showed his staying power and plenty of skill as he hit an excellent 72 including 10 boundaries before falling to the fast bowling of Alex Mortimore.

Jem Warner passed 50, batting at number six before being caught out via a combination of Will McKay's bowling and captain Kieron Womble's safe hands.

No other batsmen reached 20 at Swanage were bowled out after 49 overs for 216.

The new ball partnership pairing also recorded impressive figures; David Trotter produced an economical 10 over spell picking up 1-15, while youngster Harry Mitchell took 3-63.

◆ HALF CENTURY: Jim Ryall made 56 in Weymouth defeat

Weymouth's chase started poorly with Will McKay and Dom Webb falling cheaply to leave the bottom-of-the-table team at 5-2.

Joe James went soon after, but a resilient display from Womble and Jim Ryall gave the seashiders hope.

They built a partnership of 70 runs to move the score into a strong position at 122-3.

The pivotal moment came soon after though when captain Womble was run out looking for a quick single. Ryall followed his captain back to the pavilion for 56 and with the tail failing to wag Weymouth were bowled out for 156 leaving them 60 runs short.

Although the defeat will have stung, the already relegated Weymouth bowled and fielded excellently and were unlucky to be on the wrong end of the score line.

Next up for Weymouth is an away trip to Stalbridge on August 22nd.

SHERBORNE 249-5 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 97 ALL OUT BY FIVE WICKETS
SHERBORNE carried on their march towards the Dorset Premier title with a dominant win over lowly Martinstown.

Martinstown won the toss and sent Sherborne into bat, a mistake that proved costly as the home side showed their class posting an imposing total 249-5 from their 50 overs.

Marc Lock scored 59 as useful partnerships were built down the order to put Sherborne into a commanding position.

The visitors came out to bat but were met by a strong Sherborne bowling attack who knocked off the 10 wickets in 32.4 overs, gaining their 14th win of the summer.

Sherborne Captain Paul Hancock was the pick of the bowlers after taking three wickets for 21 runs in an impressive display.

Martinstown will finish their season at home to Poole Town on August 22nd.

County Division Three
BEAMINSTER 155-4 BEAT POOLE TOWN 3RDS 152-8 BY FOUR WICKETS

Beaminster secured a vital away victory in a relegation battle against Poole Town 3rds.

Dave Percy was the hero as his inspired spell of bowling returned figures of 6-25 restricting Poole Town to a below par score of 152 from their 45 overs.

After winning the toss, Poole elected to bat on an extremely wet wicket, and despite the surprising choice, the opening batsmen scored freely against good bowling from the Beaminster new ball bowlers.

Change bowlers Ady Phillips and Simon Jones took the first wickets of the day and proceeded to bowl excellent spells, as Jones only conceded 12 runs from his nine overs and took one wicket.

Poole's middle order tried to show their battling spirit the introduction of paceman Percy changed the game causing a massive collapse that restricted Poole's total to 152 after 45 overs, a tricky total to try and defend.

In reply, Beaminster lost Hugh Rathbone (0) and Simon Jones (5) early on before Rich Runyard (54) and Ross Baker (34) compiled an excellent 75 run partnership.

Runyard scored his first half-century of the season and looked in fine touch.

Ross Baker dug in and played a vital role before being run out needlessly by Will Everitt (35no). Despite this set back, Adam Her-ring (10no) joined Everitt and calmly ensured Beaminster reached their target in the 41st over.

DORCHESTER 2NDS 195 FOR 3 BEAT WAREHAM 194 BY SEVEN WICKETS
DORCHESTER 2nds consolidated their third position in the league with a dominant win over bottom of the table Wareham.

Wareham posted 194-5 from their full 45 over allocation and Dorchester had no trouble chasing that down as they posted 195-3 in just 33.5 overs.

Dorchester 2nds last fixture is at home to Sturminster Marshall and there is still a possibility of finishing second in the league.

County Division Four
ABBOTSBURY 292-6 BEAT HAMWORTHY RECREATION 2NDS 208-6 BY 84 RUNS
ABBOTSBURY picked up their 11th win of the season as they put on a dominant batting display against lowly Hamworthy Recreation.

Abbotsbury went to the Hamworthy club with an outside chance of winning Division Four and did their ambitions no harm after home captain Stuart Peters sent Abbotsbury into bat.

Although at one point the side were 30-4, Captain Simon Pengelly and Chas Duerdoth put on a stand of 203 with Duerdoth scoring 156 in a superb all round performance which later saw him pickup three wickets for 32 runs later in the day.

Abbotsbury posted an impressive total after their 40 overs of 292-6 with captain Pengelly remaining unbeaten on 52.

Abbotsbury took to the field to defend the big total and took wickets at regular intervals to restrict the home side to 208 in their 40 overs.

Wicketkeeper Eddie Wilson hit an unbeaten 72 as Hamworthy Recreation tried to chase down the total and while Gordon Frazier (39) and Harry Poole (28) also contributed Hamworthy still found themselves 84 runs short of the win.

But the day belonged to Chas Duerdoth, and Abbotsbury after a sublime performance with both bat and ball.

County Division Five
CHARLTON DOWN 135-7 BEAT CHALKE VALLEY 134-9 BY TWO WICKETS
CHARLTON Down moved to within two points of promotion with a close fought victory against an experienced Chalke Valley team.

Debutant Roger Frapwell took a large amount of the plaudits as he hit an excellent half-century which helped the league leaders over the line.

Charlton Down won the toss and chose to bowl on a pitch that certainly favoured the bowling team.

Matt and Dan Stevens opened the bowling and produced a fantastic display of pace and swing bowling and it was Matt who made the first break through taking the wicket of the dangerous Harry Hutchings (13).

◆ AMONG THE WICKETS: Nick Voss took 3 for 5

The bowler then produced a series of tempting out swingers to Chalke Valley captain Andy Mercer who finally nicked one into the expectant gloves of Wicketkeeper Rob Deadman.

Kevin Monaghan and Steve Warrack offered some resistance to the bowling of the Charlton pacemen but spinner Kim Park came on and changed the game. After bowling Monaghan (32) he brilliantly trapped Warrack (13) lbw to leave the score on 74-4 at drinks.

Nick Voss (3-5) and Pete Tucker (1-15) then caused a middle order collapse as Chalke Valley fell from 99-4 to 106-7.

Some defiant tail end hitting from Dave White and Pete Cooper eventually moved the score forward to 134-9.

Charlton Down's run chase started with a stutter as Harry Hutchings took the first two wickets in the eighth over leaving the away side on 20 for 2.

However, a Match defining partnership of 63 between Frapwell and Matt Stevens (27) moved the tie towards Charlton favour.

A mini collapse towards the end of this engaging encounter made things a bit tenser. Park, Frapwell and Javed Gill all fell to Mercer, but runs from Rob Rutter, plus two wides in the penultimate over won them the game and took Charlton Down ever closer to Division Four.

Charlton Down will close the season out with two matches first against Cerne Valley 2nds on August 22nd and Broadstone 3rds on August 29th.

County Division Six
BERE REGIS 2NDS 103-4 BEAT BEAMINSTER 2NDS 101 ALL OUT BY SIX WICKETS
BEAMINSTER were well and truly beaten by a dominant display by champions elect Bere Regis 2nds.

Bere won the toss and sent Beaminster into bat an inspired decision as Alan Lambert (11-3) and Jacob White (22-3) produced the bowling figures of the day as Beaminster were skittled out for 101 after 33 overs.

Bradley Moss also took three wickets as the hosts showed why they've been the best team in Division six this summer.

They took no time in knocking off the score as the achieved 103-4 in just 24 overs and although they did lose four wickets the result was never really in doubt as Jacob Lambert hit 30no to win the match.

Star Players of the Week

■ Dorchester captain Simon Mitchem – Mitchem won the coin toss and chose to bowl first on a pitch that favoured Dorchester's bowlers.

He himself took 2 for 26 and led his team to victory with an excellent 64no. A real captain's performance.

■ Dave Percy – The Beaminster paceman took excellent figures of 6-25 as his individual brilliance turned the game of it's head as Beaminster chalked up a vital away win.

■ Chas Duerdoth – Duerdoth hit a brilliant 156 and later took three wickets in a superb performance for title chasing Abbotsbury.

Batey bagged a second for Lyme when he pounced on a scuffed clearance and fired home a low fizzer from the edge of the box.

The winner came 15 minutes from time when Rhys Hayter found strike partner Joe Bond unmarked at the far post.

Heads up! Byerley nods to victory

BY HOWARD LARCOMBE

Bridport 1 Buckland Athletic 0
Toolstation League Prem – att; 108
BRIDPORT got their Toolstation Western League Premier Division campaign up and running thanks to an early Warren Byerley header at St Mary's on Tuesday evening.

The Bees, looking to bounce back from the previous weekend's devastating 5-4 defeat at Bristol Manor Farm, bagged the all-important winner in the sixth minute when Byerley nodded home.

Both sides crafted further chances in a fluid opening 45 but the Bees trotted into the break with their slender lead intact.

The visitors, fresh from thrashing new boys Cribbs 6-1 in their opening game, peppered the hosts' six-yard box as they took control of the second period.

There was late drama when it appeared the equaliser had been scored only for the referee to rule the 'goal' out after spotting a foul on Bridport keeper Ashley Weeks.

Weeks then proceeded to make two superb saves in the dying embers of a fine game.

Bees; Weeks, A Symes (Bulman 77), C Clarke, Evans, S Buckler, Ryan Hayter, J Symes, Richardson (Peach 93), T Gale (Condliffe 75), Byerley, Dovell.

AFTER getting off to a winning start on Saturday, three first half goals saw Bridport Reserves come crashing back down to earth up at Cockrams on Wednesday evening.

Inside the first minute former Gillingham and Chard Town striker Taoufik Ben Salem, on debut, raced on to a through ball before slotting home.

Five minutes later it was 2-0. Rockies skipper Matt Chant weaved past a trio of Bees before playing in Lee Gale who outmuscled his marker before firing past keeper Lee Cleal.

The Bees gloveman was in action again soon after saving on the line to deny Szymon Matuszewski.

But Cleal was powerless to stop Gale making it 3-0 before the break with a superb shot into the top corner following a one-two with Matuszewski.

The scoring was completed after the turnaround when Weeks found Matuszewski who made no mistake.

BRIDPORT led twice at St Mary's on Saturday but ultimately let two valuable points slip as they were pegged back by Swanage.

After a goal less first half Josh Jack Scovell put Bridport soon after the restart only for Sam Beale to equalise for the visitors.

Undeterred, Josh Hunter edged the Bees ahead late on, but there was still time for Russell Tickner snatch as point for the Swans in the 89th minute.

Superb week for busy Lyme bowlers

By Paul Moffitt

IT'S been a very busy, and successful, week for the Club with wins for the Ladies and men in the Dorset Leagues.

Unfortunately, Lyme 2 didn't join in the success scrambling just a single point away at Dorchester.

The Ladies were back to winning ways with a fine 10-0 result at home to West Moors. The highlight of the week must surely be Lyme 1's huge 104-25 win away at Wellworthy. With all rinks in scintillating form, the final score line is probably a club record for a league side.

More success for the ladies came when they won their second round tie in the June Culpin Trophy. Playing a strong two-rink squad from Branksome Park they edged home by seven shots and are now through to the semi-finals to be played at West Moors on September 4th.

Last Saturday the club hosted the annual Ladies Invitation Triples Tournament which attracted 22 teams from across the county. The eventual winners, after all the teams had played three 55 minute sessions, were Broadstone Wessex who overcame Wellworthy in the final played over nine ends.

A superb lunch was laid on by catering manager Pauline Knight and her merry band of helpers. The winners and runners-up were presented with their prizes by this year's sponsors, Lesley Broom and Nola Stephens.

In the friendlies, it was played three won three..

Bridport Runners will take you 'from couch to 5k'

Bridport Runners have launched a new beginners group for anyone wanting to start running, but who are lacking confidence and training.

'From couch to 5k' is a six week course designed to get anyone fit to run five kilometers – approximately three miles – without stopping, regardless of having little or no training before.

Having organised the course three times previously, members of Bridport Runners received clear evidence of the success of the course with all in the group easily managing five kilometers after a few sessions and some going longer distances.

Many of the beginners from the first courses have gone on to run quarter marathons, half marathons and local organised runs.

The new class starts on Wednesday, September 9th at 5.45pm at Bridport Football Club car park, opposite Bridport Leisure Centre.

It will take place every Wednesday night from 6pm to 7pm until the middle of October.

The training will be organised by two qualified leaders and all novices will receive a gentle introduction into running.

They will not only be trained in finding the right running style, but in gaining endurance and speed as well.

For the last session, beginners will be invited to take part in the five kilometre Weymouth Parkrun.

The cost of the course is £12, which will be refunded if the participant chooses to join Bridport Runners afterwards.

To find out more or to take part in the course, contact Bridport Runners' chair Brian Shelley or one of the qualified leaders on the contacts page of the Bridport Runners website, www.bridport-runners.co.uk

Clark strike see Bees march on

Alresford Town 0 Bridport 1

FA Cup (extra preliminary round)

THE Bees made the 170-mile round trip to Winchester to face Wessex Premier League outfit Alresford with a home tie in the next round on offer for the winners.

In a game of few chances the main incident of a the first-half saw the hosts reduced to 10 men as early as the 27th minute when skipper Sammy Carter sought revenge after having appeared to have been struck on the cheekbone and was shown a straight red-card.

Even with a numerical advantage Bridport failed to test home keeper Jon Howard and it was the Magpies who continued to press.

Ben Stanbrook headed straight at Ashley Weeks in the Bees goal when well placed and Dan Fox also went close.

As the ten men began to tire Ryan Dovell finally forced a save from Howard but thoughts were turning to a replay

by Howard Larcombe

when the winner arrived three minutes from time.

The Bees repelled a late home attack and the ball broke to Crit Clark who drove a shot that beat Howard and flashed into the net via an upright.
